Remembering the Saints

Revelation 7:9-17

Zach Ugol

After this I looked, and there was a great crowd that no one could number. They were from every nation, tribe, people, and language.

Litany of Remembrance

Living God, our Guide and Guardian, we set aside this moment to remember those saints who are dear and precious to us who have died and entered into glory during the last twelve months. From the members of Trinity United Methodist Church, we remember:

o

Harold Alexander Saunders, Jr

o

Carol Anne Strohl

James Michael Costello, Jr.

William Stephen Syrett, Jr.

o

Leslie (Les) W. Morgan

On this All Saints Sunday, we acknowledge that we are living saints, of the family of God with all the saints of the past, the present, and the future.

The Message

"Who Are the Saints?"

Invitation to the Table

All Are Welcome

Prayer of Confession

Beloved God, who was known to our mothers and fathers, and even to our spiritual forebears, have mercy on us.

We do not always love as you would have us love.

We do not always do as you would have us do.

In our stubbornness, we turn from you when we should turn toward you.

Hold us, dear One – comfort us when we mourn the passing of friends and family, and help us to know that they are rejoicing in your presence.

We praise you for the grace you shower on us, constantly forgiving our errors, especially the ones that we don’t share with any but you.

Hear now the silent fears and worries of our hearts....

The Prayer of Great Thanksgiving

Lift up your hearts and give thanks to God.

Lord’s Prayer

Ecumenical

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For yours are the kingdom, the power, and the glory, now and forever.

Amen.
