Children's Time

Prayer of the People — Come, Lord Jesus, and hear our prayer.

Lord's Prayer — Ecumenical

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For yours are the kingdom, the power, and the glory, now and forever. Amen.

Special Music — Emmanuel, Come Soon

The Psalter — Psalm 80:1-7, 17-19 — Ava Poythress

But let your hand be upon the one at your right hand,
the one whom you made strong for yourself.
Then we will never turn back from you;
give us life, and we will call on your name.
Restore us, O Lord God of hosts;
let your face shine, that we may be saved.

The Message — Restore Us, O God

Prayer of Confession

*Song of Grace — The First Song of Isaiah, 2030

*An Advent Affirmation of Faith

We are an Advent people, a people of hope.

For us, Advent is a time of waiting, and so we wait.
We wait for the coming of the One who is the fulfillment of God's promise, the fulfillment of hope.

Yet, we are not a naïve people.
We know that the world in which we live
will continue to experience pain and sorrow.
We know that hatred and violence will continue to exist.
We know that death and separation will continue to be a part of our lives.

But because we are an Advent people, we know that none of these things will win in the end.
For the Holy One is coming,
to make holy once again
all that was, is, and ever will be.

Now in our waiting and our hoping,
we work and worship, pray and play, anticipating the day when hope, peace, joy and love will reign in our lives and in our world, now and forever.
